Local Accounting Firm and 3 Construction Associations Offer Series of QuickBooks Seminars

Info Plus(+) Accounting<sup>SM</sup>, in conjunction with The Building Industry Association of Southeastern Michigan, the Home Builders Association of Livingston County, and the Home Builders Association of Washtenaw County, is delighted to announce that beginning in April, they will offer a unique, progressive series of 8 half-day seminars titled, "Accounting for Success with QuickBooks®". The classes will provide bookkeepers and company owners the in-depth knowledge that they need to structure, implement, and control their QuickBooks® accounting systems. The sessions are designed to meet the special needs of construction companies (and other companies who track job costs), and to address all QuickBooks® user levels: beginning, intermediate and advanced.

Seminar Highlights Include:

- Ways to achieve the specific, accurate, timely, and useful information that you need from your QuickBooks® accounting system
- In depth discussions that address specific time-tracking, job costing or construction-accounting questions
- Tips and tricks to make your bookkeeping process easier and more effective
- How to turn your accounting system into a money-maker for your company

The series will be held afternoons at the Rock Financial Center & Showplace, 46100 Grand River Avenue, Novi, Michigan, 48374 on the following dates in 2006:

April 4th and 27th
May 8th and 25th
June 6th and 22nd
July 18th
August 8th

The developer and leader for the series, Diane Gilson (Certified QuickBooks® Pro Advisor, author, and national seminar leader) says, "Reliable financial information is so vital to the health and stability of any well-run company that we've joined together to expand this educational series far beyond the traditional introductory seminars. We're looking to advance each of our class participants to a much higher level of accounting and software expertise. Essential QuickBooks® and accounting tips, shortcuts, concepts, applications, procedures, reporting, and controls will be integrated throughout each half-day seminar. In addition, to confirm that they have participated in this comprehensive and focused training, we will be providing participants with tests and Certificates of Completion to attest to their commitment to advancing their financial expertise."
